To everyone at Crowood Industries, we can't say thank you enough

Thank you so much for your fantastic donation of £193.50 to Macmillan Cancer Support. Because of your continued generosity we'll be able to reach more people with our life-changing support.

Please accept my sincerest apologies for the delay in writing to you. Due to the overwhelming generosity from supporters like you we have received a large number of donations in the last few weeks, which has meant we have been unable to respond as quickly and personally as we'd like. If you would like a more specific thank you letter, please do give us a call on 0300 1000 200 and we'll get another one sent out to you.

No one should face cancer alone

Macmillan believes that everyone affected by cancer should be able to get the help and support they need, so they don't go through cancer alone. That's exactly what your donation is helping us achieve.

Your donation will help us to fund more nurses and therapists to help people through cancer treatment. It will help us to provide more information and support centres offering free and confidential advice. It will support us in our campaigns to improve cancer care and fight discrimination. Your donation will help us be there for patients, carers, families and communities every step of the way.

Thanks again for being such an important part of the Macmillan team. Without your help, we wouldn't be able to keep providing our vital services. Together we are all Macmillan Cancer Support.

Best wishes,

Ollie Lashbrook
