To everyone at Greenlight Cartridge Recycling, we can't say thank you enough

Dear friends,

Thank you so much for your fantastic donation of £122.00 to Macmillan Cancer Support raised through your recycling programme. That is an incredible effort from you all and we really appreciate your on-going commitment to supporting the work that we do at Macmillan.

We would like to thank all employees at Greenlight Cartridge Recycling for choosing Macmillan as a charity of your choice; your combined effort, time and generosity means we'll be able to reach many more people living with cancer in the UK. Together, we can help them find their best way through to live life as fully as they can.

Your brilliant fundraising could make a real difference in people's lives. For example, £122.00 could pay for a Macmillan social care worker or family support worker for 1 day - reaching patients, family members and carers to help manage the social and practical problems of living with cancer.

Our social care workers (alongside a smaller number of family support workers) work in collaboration with local communities and social care services across the country, providing that essential support so those living with cancer may have increased independence and an improved quality of life. They also give effective emotional and psychological assistance for patients, families and carers.

Thanks again for being such an important part of the Macmillan team. Without your help, we wouldn't be able to keep providing our vital services. Together we are all Macmillan Cancer Support.

Best wishes,

Jean-Gabriel Tarassenko
